BROWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE

South Campus

BCC's South Campus is defined by a scenic lake and a 23-acre nature park with jogging and fitness trails.

The BCC/South Regional Library which features a multi-media auditorium and community meeting rooms is situated on the campus. Construction of a new gymnasium began in late 1991.

South Campus is also home to nationally recognized, hands-on automotive and aviation programs and includes an airframe and power plant learning facility.

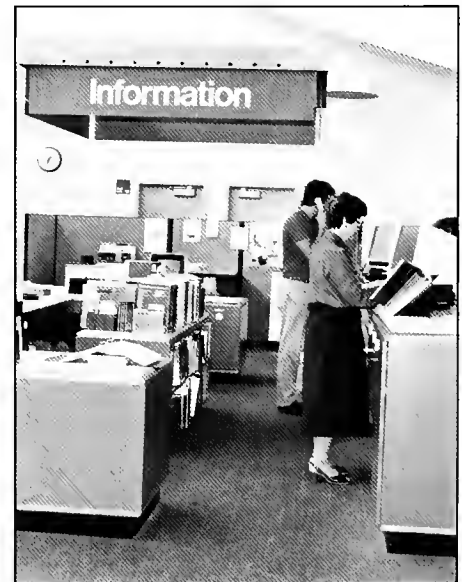

The campus is conveniently located on Hollywood/Pines Boulevard west of Florida's Turnpike at 72nd Avenue in Pembroke Pines.

Students get experience in the Automotive Technology program.

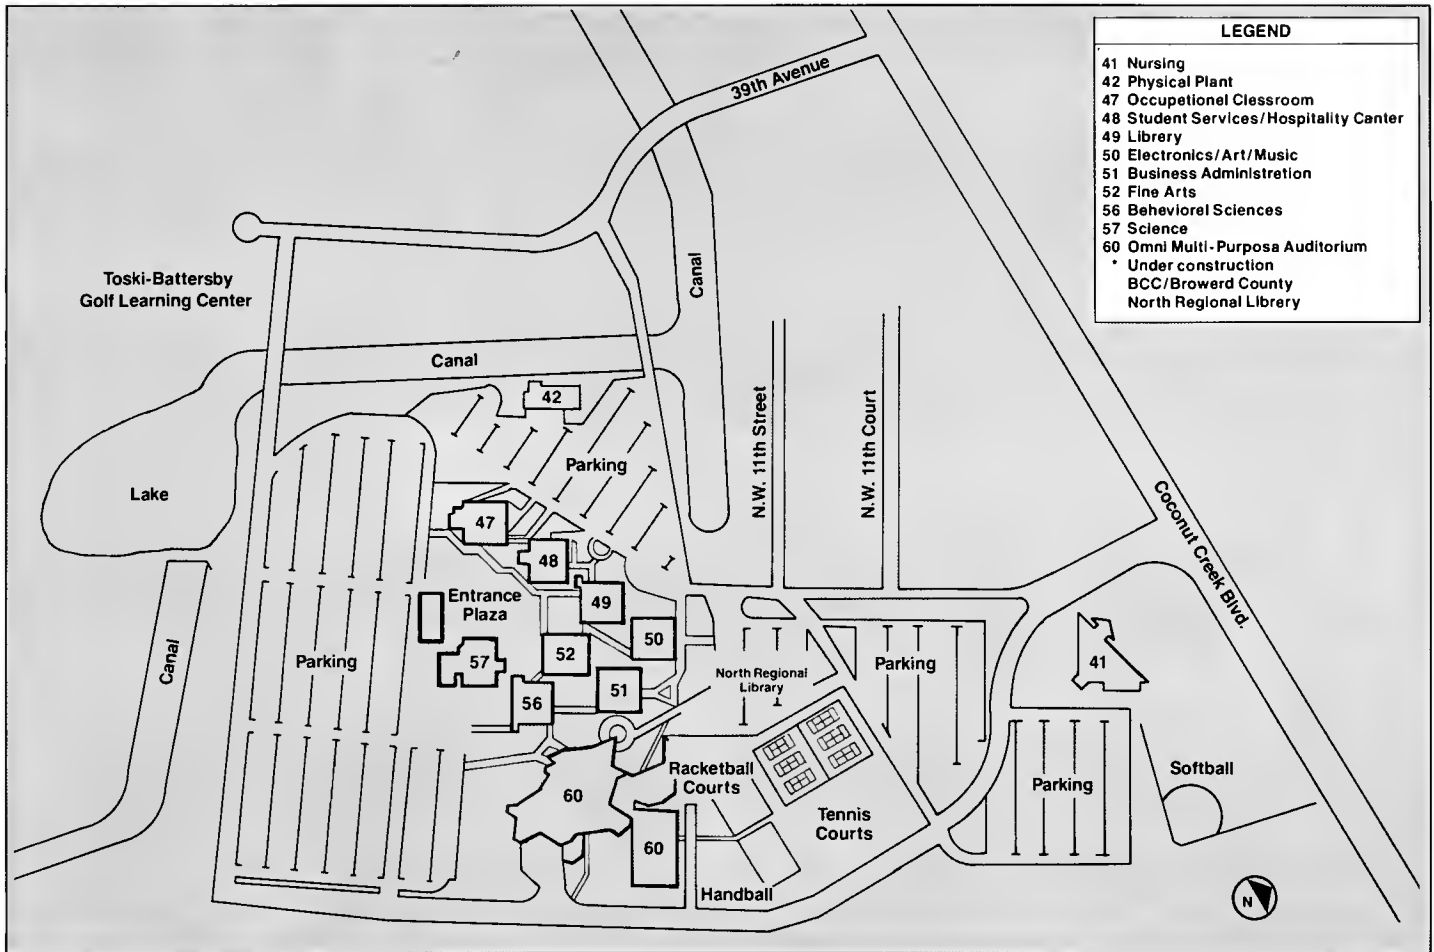

The BCC/South Regional Library combines contemporary architecture with advanced learning.

Open College tapes can be checked out from county libraries and Campus Learning Resource Centers.

North Campus

Home to Omni Auditorium, a multi-purpose facility showcasing a variety of local and national events, North Campus is located near Florida Turnpike exit #67 in Coconut Creek.

The campus is the site of a new math and science building, designed with classrooms and state-of-the-art laboratory facilities. A computer laboratory, music hall and art studio are among the learning facilities on North Campus. The new $13 million BCC/North Regional Library, to be completed in 1993, will be the largest building on any BCC campus.

The rustic classroom buildings are linked by second-floor walkways and tree-lined paths. A variety of native trees and foliage create both a natural and energetic ambiance at North Campus.

The Ralph R. Bailey Concert Hall, the Criminal Justice Institute, the Center for Health Science and Buehler Planetarium and Observatory are among the facilities located on the 150-acre Central Campus.

The beautifully landscaped grounds include lakes, an aquatic complex, tennis courts and athletic fields.

Seating areas throughout the campus provide students with outside study areas and create a setting characteristic of Florida's sub-tropic lifestyle.

Bailey Concert Hall is home to the Miami City Ballet. A year-round entertainment calendar features top-ranked popular and cultural programs from all corners of the world, as well as student and faculty productions throughout the year.

Located in the heart of Davie, Central Campus is easily accessible via Florida's Turnpike, Interstate 95 and Interstate 595.

You can join BCC's team in a number of sports.

Students "whip up" delightful treats in the Culinary Arts program.

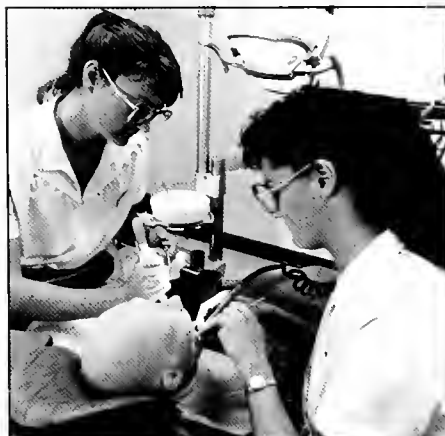

Be a star in our Astronomy courses at BCC's Central Campus.

Those interested in a television career learn the ropes firsthand.

Each campus offers unique settings for out-of-class time with friends.

Health Science students receive "hands-on" experience in fully equipped laboratories.

Landscape Technology is just one of the special programs offered at BCC.

Downtown Fort Lauderdale Center

Located in downtown Fort Lauderdale, this BCC facility is part of the University Tower educational complex, a consortium of Florida International University, Florida Atlantic University and Broward Community College. The convenient, in-town location offers a variety of courses for business and professional people, scheduled after work and during lunch hours.

The Fort Lauderdale Center also houses the College's administrative offices.

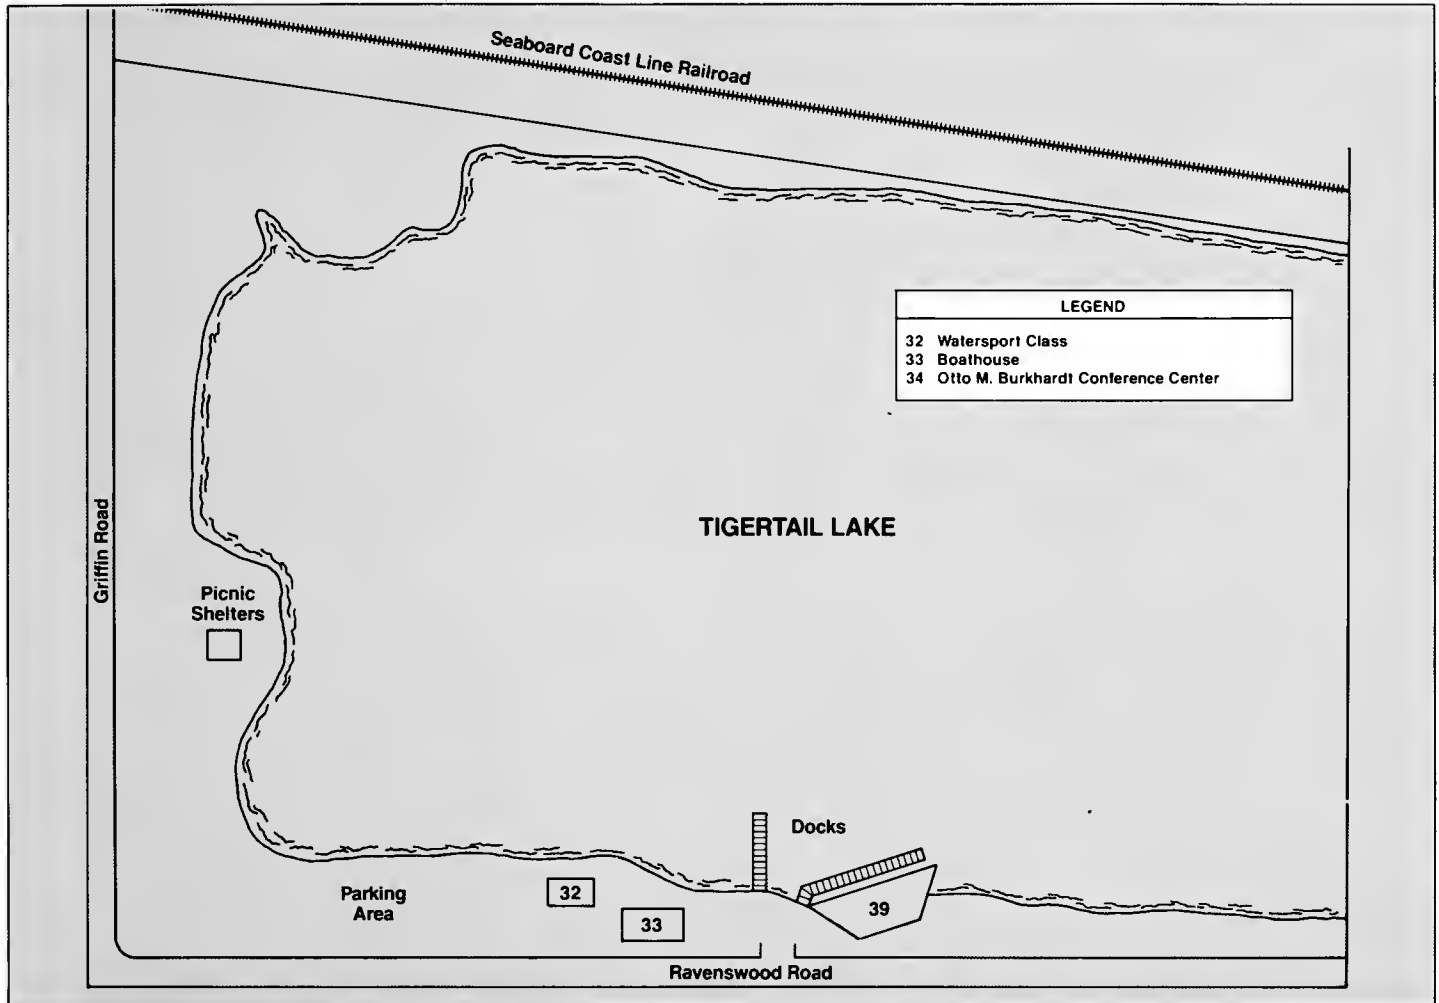

The Downtown campus offers executives a convenient location to take additional classes and enhance their education.

Students gather after work and before classes to discuss current events.

Otto M. Burkhardt Conference Center

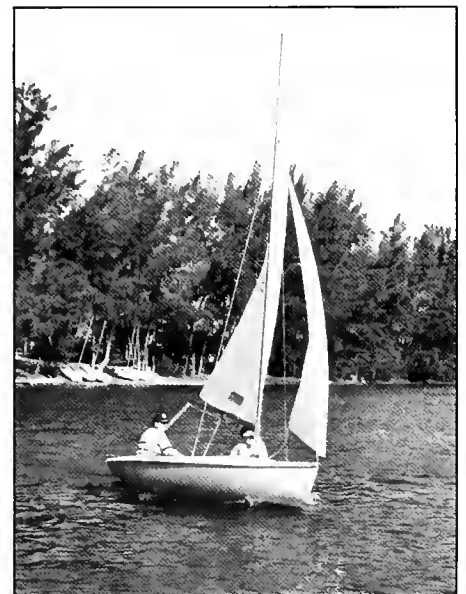

Sail on over to BCC's Tigertail Conference Center, a picturesque recreational and education retreat in an old-Florida ambiance of native trees and abundant sub-tropical vegetation.

Here a sparkling lake affords an ideal setting for outdoor classes such as sailing, canoeing, and windsurfing. Leadership retreats and other weekend outings which combine social opportunities, sports, fun and academic enhancement, are held at Tigertail throughout the year.

The Center also is available to community groups and organizations which may utilize a comprehensive facility for a variety of conferences, meetings and special events.

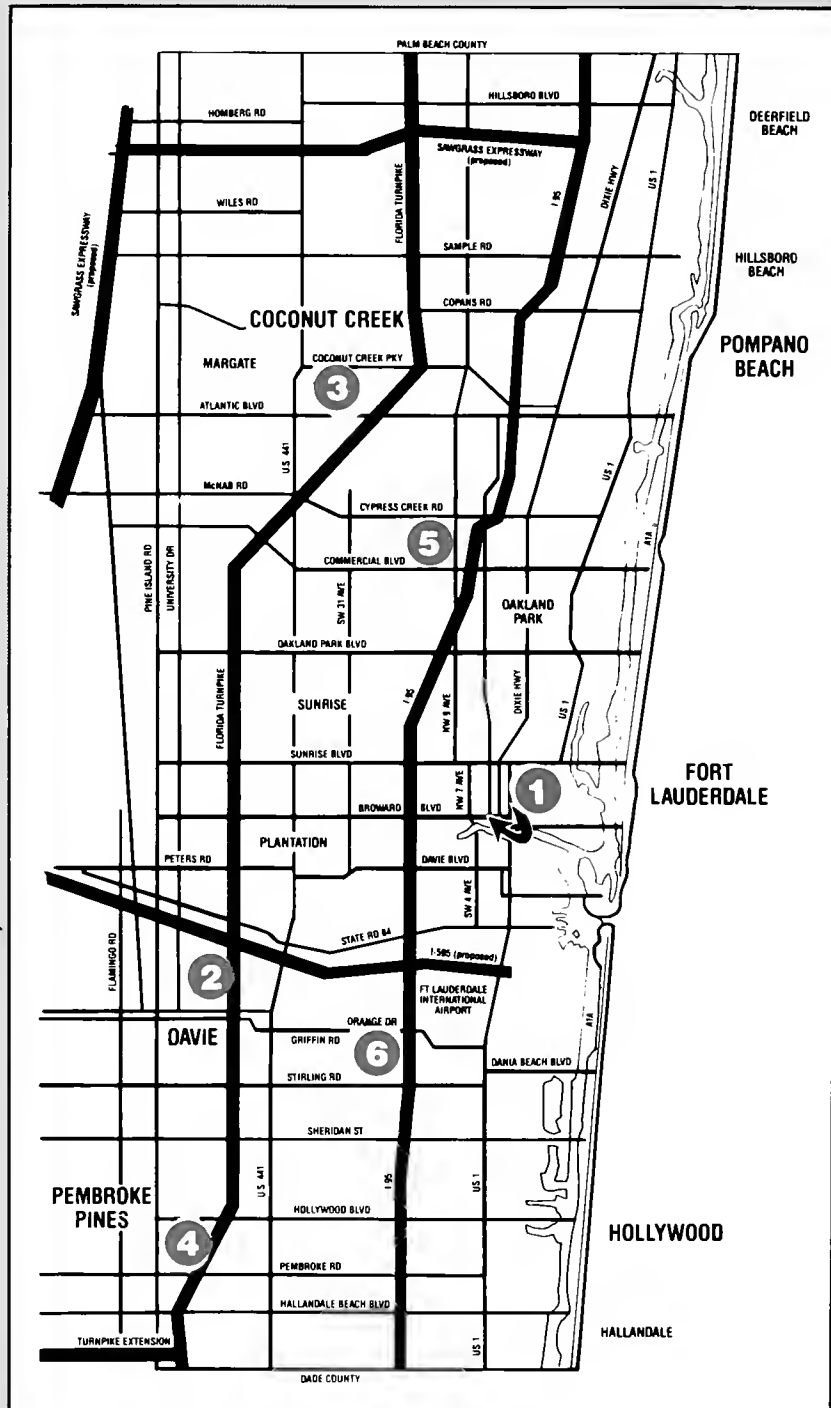

Tigertail Lake is the perfect site for water sports instruction.

BCC's own nature retreat offers hours of quiet enjoyment.
